The American National Union of The United States of America refutes the Global Compact on Migration. As the ANU supports and defends the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the Charter of the American Continent, The Law of Nations, and the Bi-Lateral Social Compact Agreement; the Global Compact on Migration is repugnant to the American National Union of The United States of America and poses a direct threat to the rights of all people the World over. Further, the American National Union of The United States of America stands in opposition to a political strategy intent upon the destruction of peaceful Sovereign nations, perpetrated by war criminals.
